1. What is DRAC?

What is DRAC?

- Descriptor of Research and Academic Activity (DRAC) is the institutional CRIS (Current Research Information System) of the UPC. It is a tool that allows for the comprehensive management of all research-related processes.
- It incorporates all information regarding the scientific output of UPC researchers (journal articles, books, book chapters, research projects, patents, awards, etc.):
 - through automated uploads from other UPC information systems or external sources,
 - or manually by DRAC users.

- Activities are visible in:
 - CVs (Curricula Vitae)
 - Annual reports of academic units (AU) and research groups (RG)
 - FUTUR, the Website for the Scientific Production of UPC Researchers: <https://futur.upc.edu/>
 - Research Portal of Catalonia (PRC): <https://portalrecerca.csuc.cat/>
 - Calculation of annual indicators for research activity and technology transfer of AUs and RGs: PAR points and PATT points.

How to access?

<https://drac.upc.edu/home/?lang=en>

- Access: Username (firstname.lastname) and the password used for all other UPC intranets.
- Important: If the username assigned in your Digital Identity changes upon registering as a PhD student → contact suport.drac@upc.edu to update it manually in DRAC.
- From outside the UPC network, it is only accessible using the Corporate VPN (UPCLink). More information at: <https://serveistic.upc.edu/ca/upclink>.

FUTUR. A portal created by the UPC that provides academic information about our researchers.

FUTUR provides access to the scientific and technical output contained in the DRAC portal. You can only modify or update this information in DRAC. Changes are reflected on FUTUR following the next portal update. (It is updated once a week.)

In the event that you do not want to show an activity, you must uncheck it on the homepage or the page in DRAC.

Requirements:

- Enrolment in a doctoral programme (registration completed)
- Have activities that are showed in Futur registered in DRAC

The Research Portal of Catalonia (PRC) was created by the Directorate-General of Research of the Secretariat for Universities and Research of the Government of Catalonia.

The PRC provides access to the scientific and technical output contained in DRAC. You can only modify or update these data in DRAC. (It is updated every two months.)

The PRC includes teaching and research staff and research support staff who have at least one associated activity, that is, they are part of a research group or research project or they have a publication or thesis.

They must also have an ORCID code registered on DRAC.

Requirements:

- ORCID in DRAC (personal data)
- Have activities showed in CORA registered in DRAC

DIPÒSIT DE LA PUBLICACIÓ A UPCOMMONS/E-PRINTS:

Per acomplir la normativa aprovada pel Consell de Govern de la UPC (Acord núm. 177/2014), per a l'obtenció de punts PAR, s'ha de dipositar una còpia (postprint author's final draft) de l'article a UPCommons/E-prints UPC.

Activeu el botó "Adjuntar fitxer" per trametre el/s arxiu/s.

El document es farà públic al repositori sota les següents condicions:

Sempre que el titular dels drets d'explotació ho permeti, es dipositarà el postprint de la publicació en accés obert.

En els casos en què no sigui possible l'accés obert, es dipositarà igualment de forma tancada. En aquest cas també s'atorgaran els punts PAR corresponents.

Si la publicació ja està disponible a UPCommons o no voleu que sigui avaluada (punts PAR) premeu "No adjuntar".

Llicència de dipòsit

Ha de concedir aquesta llicència de dipòsit per completar l'enviament. Si no podeu concedir aquesta llicència en aquest moment, podeu desar el vostre treball i tornar més tard o bé eliminar l'enviament.

Per tal que UPCommons reproduïxi i comuniqui públicament la seva tramesa és necessari el seu acord amb els termes següents. Si us plau, llegeixi les condicions de llicència següents:

Clicant aquesta llicència, vostè (l'autor i/o el propietari del copyright) garanteix a la UPC el dret no exclusiu a distribuir la seva tramesa mundialment en format electrònic.

També està d'acord que la UPC pot conservar més d'una còpia d'aquesta tramesa per a propòsits de seguretat i preservació.

La durada de la cessió de drets serà indefinida i pot ésser terminada per denúncia unilateral de l'autor/cedent, per terminació d'ambdues parts de mutu acord o per incompliment de qualsevol de les parts de les obligacions contingudes a la mateixa.

Declarar que la tramesa és un treball original seu, i/o que té el dret per atorgar els drets continguts en aquesta llicència. També declara que la seva tramesa no infringeix el copyright de cap persona.

Si vostè (l'autor) no té el copyright del treball objecte de la tramesa, la UPC el dipositarà a UPCommons respectant exclusivament les condicions establertes pel titular corresponent dels drets d'explotació.

Si la tramesa es basa en una obra que ha estat patrocinada o recolzada per una agència o organització diferent a la UPC, es pressuposa que s'ha complert amb qualsevol dret de revisió o altres obligacions requerides per tal contracte o acord.

La UPC no farà cap alteració diferent a les permeses en aquesta llicència a la seva tramesa.
